One Five

A Council newsletter, distributed the 15th of each month

Council on Technology Teacher Education

From The President

When I was looking "ahead" to the March 15, 2009 issue of this ONE FIVE newsletter, I assumed that this would be a pre-conference edition of the monthly publication. That assumption is correct! This issue is full of details about the conference that is less than two weeks away.

I truly hope to see everyone in Louisville, Kentucky later this month. Much of the Council's annual plan of operation starts during the CTTE meetings, committee work sessions, general discussions, and formal presentations held at the convention . . . it's an important time for CTTE members and officials.

For those of you headed to ITEA, a brief review of the Council's agenda . . . .

1) Our association is, first and foremost, a professional association. Hence the information and observations shared during the CTTE Research and Interest Sessions at ITEA provide vital contributions to the field. Please plan on attending as many sessions as possible.

2) CTTE is also about accreditation, in the form of the ITEA / CTTE / NCATE accreditation process. Two sessions, a writers and reviewers workshop, are on the schedule for Thursday afternoon of the Louisville conference.

3) The Council will introduce the "new" yearbook, Essential Topics for Technology Educators, at the ITEA-CS / CTTE Yearbook Dinner at Louisville. Note: The yearbook event is a luncheon this year, which means the price is dramatically reduced as compared to previous conferences.

4) The major affairs of this organization are reviewed at the annual CTTE Business Meeting and CTTE Work Session, to be held on Friday of the ITEA conference. Recognition of various institutions, CTTE awards, routine business, etc. are all on the agenda. Note: The executive officer team will suggest a CTTE By-Law change to bring the association into the electronic age.

5) Finally, the entire program is available on-line. The full version is at: http://www.iteaconnect.org/Conference/CTTEconferenceprogram.pdf

A special note of thanks to CTTE Vice President Chris Merrill and his program review team for assembling a program full of worthwhile topics. See many of you in Louisville . . . . .

CTTE Election Results

What elections you ask?

No, you didn't miss anything. There wasn't an election this cycle, as we're in the middle of the staggered 3-year terms for the CTTE President & Secretary versus the CTTE Vice President & Treasurer. That means one year in three without an election.

No officer elections were held this past winter (as the next cycle will be in later this year).

During the fall of 2009, Past President Michael De Miranda will be head the nominating committee's efforts to find candidates for the offices of CTTE President and Secretary. These terms will run 2010-2013. If you would be interested in serving in one of these posts, please contact any member of the CTTE executive committee (names and contact details are on page #2 of this newsletter). Your name will be passed along to the nominations committee.

Thank you!
